

SAT Results

St. Paul's is an inclusive and non-selective school that consistently beats the national average in key measures. The children at St. Paul's experience a broad and exciting curriculum to enhance their academic performance, whilst learning that continuous effort and engagement brings great personal rewards.

